Community Listening Session for The Schools St. Paul Children Deserve

Hallie Q Brown Community Center
270 N Kent St, St. Paul

Monday, May 6, 5:30-7:30p.m.

The Saint Paul Federation of Educators is dedicated to advocating and fighting for the racially equitable schools our St. Paul children deserve. As we prepare for our upcoming contract negotiations, we want to hear from families and community members about the needs you want addressed in our schools. Join us for small group discussions and brainstorming about how to improve our public schools. Food will be served at 5:30p.m. and discussions will be begin at 5:45p.m..

Daycare and Language Interpreter Services Provided. Call Leah at 651-222-7303 for more information.
